

I ardently oppose the weakening of Indiana's DO-NOT-CALL list. Please act on behalf of consumers, voters, home owners, parents, and families and do not allow any changes in the law that would allow banks to call us.

If we want these services, we will call them.